THE PASTORS' PAGE

To our family and friends in the Church of Wabash 1st UMC,

Grace and peace to you in Christ Jesus. I address you not simply as "the people" but as "family and friends" because you have so warmly embraced and welcomed me and my family into your hearts and presence. Thank you.

Thank you for including my kids in a puppet skit.

Thank you for blessing my wife with warm welcome and kind words.

Thank you for the prayer shawls which cover us with reminders of your prayers.

Thank you for a wonderful time of worship and great music.

Thank you for working so hard to make a place for us among you that we, together, can reach our community for Christ.

I truly enjoyed worship with you this past Sunday and look forward to the future with you. We are heading together into September, a landmark month for our people America. It has been ten years since our world was broken; ten years since our perceived security was invaded; ten years since life changed forever. Ten years...and what have we learned?

My hope is we have learned to be a gentle people, a humble people, a people who build peace. On September 11th we will remember, put back together, what it means to be a people who struggle to build peace even when others might not have that goal in mind or at heart. We will remember our pain and our God who meets us in that pain to bring us to healing. We will remember that our God is good and gracious and kind and...with us then and now and unto the very end of the Age.

I look forward to celebrating life together. My family is looking forward to being up here full time and they appreciate all the hard work going into making that happen.

Thank you, again.

Shalom, Rev. Kurt Freeman

PASTOR HEATHER HAPPENINGS

We are approaching the tenth anniversary of September 11, 2001. There are many children who have no remembrance of that day but will see images and hear stories of the devastating loss that day in events leading up to September 11. We may not be able to answer all our children or grandchildren's questions (September 11 is Grandparents Day as well), but we can share God's gift of prayer. I have been reading PEACEFUL REMEMBRANCE OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001: Forty Days of Prayer for Children. It is a resource through our General Board of Discipleship and has a prayer a day for forty days that express hope, love, fear, confusion and the power of God's grace.

I'm resourcing books for children and families that talk about peace and hope to have some to add to our children's library soon. Some scripture resources to share with your children are:

LOVE: Deuteronomy 10:19, Matt. 22:35-40, I John 4:7 and John 4:20

JUSTICE AND MERCY: Psalm 67:1-4, Proverbs 31:8-9, Micah 6:6-8, Luke 4:16-21, Matt. 15:12-14

COMPASSION AND PEACE: Proverbs 19:17, I Samuel 7:12, and Ephesians 4:32.

Here is a prayer that touched my heart.

Day of Prayer 8—Wed., August 10, 2011

Dear God,

We have seen things on the news that upset us. Sometimes we feel frightened and we do not understand what we are seeing. Open our eyes to see things of beauty and your presence rather than things that are ugly and frightening. We want to focus on you every day! We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Let the children come, Pastor Heather

Parish Nurse Notes

A Faith Response to Health Problems

The church is called to be attentive to persons who are suffering and to use this as an opportunity to witness to Christ's love for us. We can be confident that the Lord will not let us experience more than we can bear, but has provided help for us in health care providers, therapists, medications and treatments, family and the community of faith.

The primary caregiver [usually a family member] of an individual with long term medical problems often feels isolated, overwhelmed, and even abandoned. Several years ago, our Parish Health Ministry began providing assistance to relieve caregivers. The services provided through this ministry are reported to the Indiana Conference. The Parish Health Ministry can provide coordination of a team or teams of individuals providing assistance to those who may be overwhelmed due to health issues. Read 2 Corinthians 4:7-11. We are all challenged to provide and assist one another in order "to know Christ and make Him known."

Volunteers are needed to assist in this Caring Ministry. We are currently participating in a neighborhood outreach to assist a family that lives a few blocks from the church. Three of their five children have participated in our VBS. Please contact Linda Gardner or Nelda Love for information on ways you can participate in helping this family. The mother is hospitalized in Indianapolis, while the father is trying to continue to work and care for the children. Our church has teamed with several other churches to assist this family, with each church assisting a different week of the month. WFUMC is scheduled to provide hot meals for three days in September and again in October. Our efforts are also being coordinated with community service agencies such as the Youth Service Bureau and the Wabash County Cancer Society. We have had volunteers willing to cook, who need assistance in buying food. If you are interested in donating money, write "Caring Ministry" on the memo line of a check. There may be other financial needs that develop in the future. Check the Sunday worship bulletin for more information.

Blood Pressure Screening: Instead of scheduling blood pressure screenings on Sundays, the Parish Nurse will be available at the Community Breakfast scheduled on Saturdays. If you are a nurse and can assist, please contact Linda.

Blessings, Linda Gardner

BOOK reMARKS

The Christian Book Club will resume meeting on September 20th at the Great Wall Restaurant at 12:30 p.m. We will be discussing the book The 19th Wife by David Ebershoff. This novel weaves together two stories. One is based on historical facts concerning the nineteenth wife of the Mormon leader Brigham Young and how she exposed the polygamous Mormon beliefs of her time. The second story is a fictional account of the murder of a modern day leader in a polygamous cult in Utah. The remaining books for this year are the best sellers, The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot (Oct. 18th) and Have a Little Faith by popular author, Mitch Albom (Nov. 15th). If you have any questions contact Sondra Harrell, 563-2800.

WHERE WOULD JESUS PARK?

As you have observed this summer, parking has been a little tight on Sunday mornings. It is a great challenge to have! With only a 9:00 a.m. worship service, we want to make our church accessible and comfortable for as many people as possible. As this school year begins and families return from summer vacation, let's rethink where we park. Please keep our growing number of guests, the elderly, physically challenged, and those with young children in mind when choosing your parking spot! Contact Pastor Heather if you have ideas for more spaces.

BLESS THE STUDENTS, TEACHERS, BUS DRIVERS, AIDES, CAFETERIA WORKERS AND VOLUNTEERS IN OUR SCHOOLS

Dear Lord Jesus, bless the children and youth, teachers, principals and all who work or volunteer in our schools because they care about learning. Guide and protect them. Strengthen and uplift them.

Give them grace. May we all learn to follow in your steps and grow in wisdom as you did. (Luke 2:52)

A NOTE FROM KIDS FIRST

Pre-school started last week and we have seventeen new friends. We have thirteen in our younger class and twenty in our older class. A huge thank you goes out to Ms Gloria and Ms Kim for an awesome new start. I am sure you have already heard of our plan to hopefully be putting our new play ground in by next spring. I and the Kids First Committee have been working really hard on estimates so we can start writing grants. This fall we would like to plant two shade trees on the new site. We are asking Kids First families and the congregation for monetary donations to help purchase the trees. These trees are going to be planted in memory of Pastor David Cross. If you would like to make a donation, you may contact me at 563-7665 or any member of the Kids First Committee.

Thank you for your support and God Bless, Missie Edwards, Director

Thank you seems so inadequate but the Kramer family says it from the bottom of our hearts. Please keep the love and prayers coming as we try to cope with this hideous ALS. In addition we wish to express deep gratitude to Jim and Caroline Stanton, Orion Toepfer, and Steve Keffaber for driving us to our numerous out of town doctor appointments. Time is precious and they give theirs so unselfishly.

The community is invited to a training "Bridges Out of Poverty" based on the book of the same title, taught by certified trainers, Karen Hinshaw and Teresa Witkoske, Purdue Extension Educators. The one day event will be October 5, 2011 from 9:30am-3:30pm at the Wabash First United Methodist Church. (110 North Cass Street, Wabash). Registration is $35 per person, and includes lunch and the "Bridges Out of Poverty" text by Dr. Ruby Payne. (If you are a member of 1st UMC Wabash, see Pastor Heather for registration cost waiver.)
